

Call for Applications & Opportunities in the Field of Cultural Diplomacy

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

On behalf of the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy, we are writing to bring to your attention an upcoming major program hosted by the ICD in partnership with other leading organizations. The upcoming programs, held in Berlin, will bring together economists, governmental and diplomatic officials, civil society practitioners, private-sector representatives, journalists, young professionals, students, scholars and other interested stakeholders from across the world to discuss some of the most pressing issues facing the world today.

We warmly encourage you to explore our upcoming conferences (see detailed information below) and would be very grateful if you could forward the information to anyone you feel might be interested in participating.

We are currently accepting applications for the following events:

The Berlin International Freedom of Expression Forum
“Censorship and Freedom in Traditional and New Media: The Revolution of Media as a Tool of Freedom of Expression”
(Berlin, February 28th – March 2nd, 2012)
www.berlin-forum.org

We are also accepting applications for the following events:
